Lesson Fifteen

THE HARVEST OF THE SPIRIT (continued)

After describing the 17 works of the flesh, we can readily see the beauty of the fruit of the Spirit, and once again emphasize that it is no wonder Paul concludes describing the fruit with the words "Against such there is no law."

I. A HARVEST FOR OTHERS

LOVE:

The fruit of love mentioned in Galatians 5:22 is taken from the same word _____ as is the word _____ in I Corinthians 13:1.

This love is a _____ love which is tender while at the same time ardent and strong. It is a love _____ to the well being of others.

This is the love whereby we are able to carry out Christ's command to "love your enemies."

Read together Matthew 5:43-48.

This agape love enables us to love the _____. Some individuals are _____ to love.

I believe it was this love which enabled John, originally referred to as one of the "Sons of Thunder," to become known as "the apostle of love." The one whom legend tells us, when he was so old he could no longer preach, would say to the departing congregation, "Little children, _____"

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

1 John 4:7

LONGSUFFERING:

The ability to _____ bear long with the faults and frailties of others, _____ murmuring and resentment.

The true fruit of the Spirit is victorious and voluntary. It suffers with a grin. Indeed, it can so cleverly conceal itself that onlookers _____ imagine that the one in view has _____ to worry about, and no particular test for patience. That is victory.²

To be longsuffering is to be _____ - _____. If it were not for the longsuffering of the Heavenly Father, mankind would have been annihilated long ago.

GENTLENESS:

To have a kind, _____, soft _____, even-tempered manner.

Some Bible translators have translated the word gentleness to read kindness. Gentleness can often be misunderstood to be weakness. _____! It requires _____ strength to be truly gentle.

Jesus, our perfect example, is said to have welcomed the little children to fellowship with Him.

_____, _____ personalities would have scattered the children and sent them away.

_____ is required to be gentle. Often it is the _____ individual who boasts and talks loudly of his accomplishments.

David, after his battle with Goliath, _____ to wear a badge or button proclaiming his greatness. David's greatness was evident for all to see.

It is usually the _____ one who whistles loudly while walking past the cemetery on a dark night. One with courage can well afford to hold his peace.

Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

Psalm 18:35

II. A HARVEST FOR OURSELVES

JOY:

This joy Paul mentions here is not some _____ or _____ which any heathen might possess.

It is not even dependent on what _____ to us, as some have described

_____.

This joy is a fruit, a _____ possession which _____ when our hearts seem to be breaking. Like the apple hangs on the apple tree even when the weather is stormy, and the sun shines not, this joy is a fruit that is evident in the true Christian.

This joy comes not from everything going well for us, but _____ it comes from _____ in the presence of God.

Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy _____ is fulness of joy; at thy _____ there are pleasures for evermore.

Psalm 16:11

This joy manifests itself at the most unexpected time, even to the _____ of the one possessing it. In the darkest hour there is _____ a holy laughter that emanates from its possessor.

This joy enables us to _____ almost impossible circumstances.

...for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

Nehemiah 8:10

This joy is an _____, a gladness and a _____, that enables us to have a deep settled peace and satisfaction.

PEACE:

The state of _____, repose and harmony with God and His plan for our lives.

There is _____, saith my God, to the wicked.

Isaiah 57:21

Peace I leave with you, _____ I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

John 14:27

Governments are said to be at peace when there is an _____ of a _____ war.

Marriages are presumed to be at peace when they are in the state of _____.

But this peace, this harvest of the Spirit is _____ a mere absence of fighting.

This peace _____ human reasoning. We sometimes find ourselves _____ that we are not _____.

TEMPERANCE:

I think temperance can be easily defined as _____ - _____. It is _____ in control of self. With temperance, we can live a life of moderation.

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

Philippians 4:5

We talk of temperance mostly in the physical realm, but we need temperance in the _____ and _____ as well.

III. A HARVEST FOR GOD

GOODNESS:

The state of being good. To be _____ - _____ in character, life, and conduct.

There are people who manifest this attribute, and you just _____ for having known them.

things: _____ and an _____ man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth _____

Fundamental Facts-Lesson 15 - Page 3

A good man out of the _____ treasure of the _____ bringeth forth _____ things: and an _____ man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth _____ things.

Matthew 12:35

Cleverness has enabled many a man to “get by” for a time, but eventually any _____ in goodness of character will manifest itself.

Goodness is the part of the harvest of the Spirit upon which _____ and _____ of the Holy Spirit can _____ be built.

FAITH:

Some Bible scholars believe the word faith in Galatians 5:22 should have been translated _____, or fidelity.

God is absolutely trustworthy, or faithful. If we desire to be like God, _____ learn faithfulness.

Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the _____ God, which _____ covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

Deuteronomy 7:9

We have learned to _____ and _____ those faithful heroes of the Bible. Heroes, who _____ have been heroes, had they _____ been found faithful.

At some point in our Christian growth, _____ determine that whether or not we ever become great, one thing we all can do _____ faithful.

MEEKNESS:

To be patient in suffering injuries without feeling a _____ of _____. To have a kind balanced disposition

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of _____

1 Peter 3:4

The fruit, or harvest, of meekness is probably one of the _____ desired by us, but one of _____ important to God.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, _____ also be tempted.

Galatians 6:1

We have Bible examples of very _____ men who were also very _____ men.

(Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

Numbers 12:3

Meekness is a _____ in those who would be servants of God.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Galatians 1:9
